

URBAN FORESTS & POLITICAL ECOLOGIES

CELEBRATING TRANSDISCIPLINARITY

Conference ~ April 18-20, 2013 ~ Toronto, ON

Save the Date!

This three-day conference will cover a wide range of issues related to urban ecologies and political transgressions. It is designed for students, faculty, practitioners, community members, artists and researchers of all disciplines who are interested in enhancing their understanding of the various narratives that shape urban green spaces and the pedagogies that contribute to engaging with those diverse perspectives.

The conference will include field tours of the Humber Arboretum & Centre for Urban Ecology and the acclaimed Alternative Campus Tour at York University, as well as, artistic expressions and a cocktail soir e with networking opportunities.

Hosted by:

Faculty of Environmental Studies, York University
Faculty of Forestry, University of Toronto
