

CAN'T TRAVEL TO SACRAMENTO?

- * Limited travel budget? Save money on hotel and airfare.
- * Too much going on at work to leave town? Save time by staying home.
- * Want more of your staff to experience the conference? Get a group together.
- * Earn up to 6 CEUs.

ATTEND THE 48TH INTERNATIONAL SMA CONFERENCE

VIRTUALLY

$159 PER MEMBER

<http://bit.ly/Qs6lh8>

$199 PER NON-MEMBER

<http://bit.ly/NH0MxW>

ONLY $129 EACH FOR GROUPS OF 5+

<http://bit.ly/S13GVO>

Participate from your conference room or computer.

Ask the speakers questions and access the full presentation for 60 days.

MANAGING URBAN TREE RISK

LIVE

Tuesday, November 13, 2012

8:00 AM to 4:45 PM Pacific Std. Time

11:00 AM to 7:45 PM Eastern Std.

A full day of international programming streamed live to your site.

If times don't work for you, record the event and watch it later (up to 60 days).

What They're Saying in Missouri - Nick Kuhn, Missouri Dept. of Conservation

Latest Trends in Tree Risk Management & Liability - Marcus Beverly, York RSG

The Science of Risk - ANSI A300 Risk Assessment BMPs - Jim Clark, HortScience, Inc.

Everyone's Talking About Risk - Municipal Arborist Panel - Dena Kirtley, Sacramento, CA; Denise Britton, Chico, CA; Walt Warriner, Santa Monica, CA

Getting the Word Out - Risk Abatement Outreach - Walt Warriner, Santa Monica, CA

Prevention - Formative Tree Pruning to Reduce Risk - Brian Kempf, Urban Tree Foundation

Risky Business - Urban Tree Risk Index - Dudley Hartel, Urban Forestry South; Rachel Barker

Future of Urban Forestry: Interns Share Their Experiences - Our 2012 interns reflect on their experiences, accomplishments & challenges.

Want to host a conference satellite location? Have questions?
Contact PAUL JOHNSON • pjohnson@tfs.tamu.edu • 210-494-4771