

KPMG Bursaries
Management Development Program for Women, Carleton University
Eligibility Criteria for 2012-2013

Three bursaries (worth $5000 each) will be available for 2012-2013 for eligible participants.

To be eligible, applicants must be Ontario residents and must be paying all or a significant portion of the tuition personally. These bursaries are intended for candidates who would not otherwise receive funding for this training.

These bursaries are open to women from a diversity of backgrounds. Final decisions on eligibility for these bursaries rest with the Director of the MDPW program. All applicants meeting the criteria and deadlines will be given consideration. Successful candidates will be informed in a timely way, will have the opportunity thank their Benefactors, and consent to have their photograph taken for potential publication.

For more information, contact the Centre for Research and Education on Women and Work in the Sprott School of Business, Carleton University at 613-520-2650 or email mdp@spratt.carleton.ca.