

National aboriginal day was first proclaimed by the Governor General of Canada on June 13, 1996, June 21st of every year has become a day in the Canadian calendar that presents Aboriginal peoples with a great opportunity to express great pride for their rich diverse cultures with their families, neighbors, friends and visitors.

Tungasuvvingat Inuit

On June 21st, 2012, Inuit with their friends and family and the community at large are invited to participate in the celebrations surrounding Inuit culture & heritage in celebration of National Aboriginal Day.

Date: June 21st, 2012
 Time: Noon– 3:30 PM
 Location: 33 Quill St

Tungasuvvingat Inuit will be host to celebrations on National Aboriginal day. The community will have the opportunity to show their skills in drumming, dancing, northern games as well as contemporary games.

National Aboriginal Day will be a fun filled day for the whole family to enjoy together, so come and join us in celebration – and a BBQ!

For more information please contact Christine or Eva @ 613-749-4500