

Too late for university?

Think again.

- Learn in a supportive group environment
- Improve reading, writing and speaking skills
- Explore your education options and potential
- Prepare for university study

Bridging Course for Women

Topic:

Should I Stay or Should I Go:
How Do Students Experience School?

Mondays 6:00-9:00 pm, January 21 – April 22, 2013
(no classes on Family Day or Easter Monday)

Call or email now to pre-register

*Courses subject to minimum enrolment. Please call for more info.
All classes located at Carleton University (Bronson at Sunnyside).*

“The Bridging Course was a way for me to get back into the education system after years away from it.”

“Participating in Bridging really helped me believe that I could make something of my life, and that I enjoyed learning and being challenged.”

Bridging Courses provide a way for mature students to qualify for admission to a Bachelor of Arts degree at Carleton University.

Courses are only $200 including books.

No high school diploma is required.

A grade of "B" in a Bridging course may qualify mature students for admission to a Bachelor of Arts degree.

Course participants must be permanent residents of Canada, and comfortable in both spoken and written English.

Carleton
UNIVERSITY

Canada's Capital University

For further information on our Bridging courses, or to register, call 613-520-6624 and visit our website

Centre for Initiatives in Education at Carleton University
www.carleton.ca/cie bridging@carleton.ca