

ON THE RECORD.

What You Need to Know About
Police Record Checks in Ontario:
A Free Workshop for HR Professionals
& Employers

Hosted By:

CANADIAN
CIVIL LIBERTIES
ASSOCIATION

ASSOCIATION
CANADIENNE DES
LIBERTES CIVILES

JohnHoward
SOCIETY OF ONTARIO

WHAT:

On The Record. is a public education workshop series aimed at providing employers and voluntary organizations with an overview of the best practices around the use of police record checks in hiring.

Topics covered include: the predictive value of police record checks as screening tools; what type of information is disclosed at various levels of record checks in Ontario; how non-conviction information differs from conviction information; how to understand the results of a “positive” police record check; how to know when to request a police record check, how to determine what level of check is necessary; and how to ensure that human resource policies and practices are compliant with privacy rights and human rights.

Light lunch and refreshments will be provided.

WHEN:

September 30, 2014
12:00pm-1:30pm

WHERE:

Community Employment
Resource Centre
415 Hazeldean Road
Kanata, ON, K2L 4C6

REGISTER NOW:

Call to register: 613-828-2123

