

Gender and Empowerment 2.0

The Canada-India Centre and Carleton International are pleased to mark
International Women's Day 2017

What's next for women's empowerment?

Featuring an opening address by the Honourable Navdeep Bains,
Minister of Innovation, Science and Economic Development (ISED)

Followed by a Panel Discussion with Minister Bains & moderated by Dr. L. Pauline Rankin, Associate Vice-President (Research and International),
Carleton University. Other panelists include:

Dr. Banu Örmeci
Professor and Jarislowsky Chair in Water and Global Health

Dr. Örmeci is an expert on water and wastewater treatment. She is the past-president and current board member of the Women in Science and Engineering (WISE) – Ottawa Chapter

Dr. Lorraine Dyke
Professor and Associate Dean,
Sprott School of Business

Dr. Dyke oversees Carleton University's domestic and international MBA programs. Her research focuses on the changing dynamics of the workforce and diversity issues, including attitudes towards women in management.

Dr. Gopika Solanki
Associate Professor, Political Science

Dr. Solanki's research includes women's rights in South Asia. Her expertise straddles the disciplines of Political Science, Legal Anthropology, Women's Studies, and Law.

Everyone Welcome

Registration is appreciated but not required, please rsvp to india@carleton.ca
Refreshments will be served

Wednesday, March 8, 2017 from 6PM – 7:45PM

Conference Rooms (2nd Floor), Residence Commons Building
Carleton University

Canada-India
Centre for Excellence

Carleton
International
CARLETON UNIVERSITY