The Elizabeth Fry Society of Ottawa is a feminist, non-profit community agency offering support and services to women and female youth who have been – or may be at risk of being – in conflict with the law.

We are currently seeking a Full-Time, Evening Shift Residential and Community Support Worker. This position is Monday to Friday.

Lotus House Residential and Community Support Worker Full-Time, Evening

Lotus House is a Residential Bail Bed Program for women run by the Elizabeth Fry Society of Ottawa. We offer twelve women a supportive living environment with accommodations for families. Lotus House is a space for women who have been released on bail while awaiting their court date.

Responsibilities:

- Promote and maintain the mission, vision and values of the Elizabeth Fry Society of Ottawa.
- Work collaboratively with the John Howard Society of Ottawa Bail Supervision Program.
- Maintain cooperative working relationships and liaison with various other service providers and funders.
- Provide primary counselling, resource referrals, crisis intervention, conflict resolution and support to all residents.
- Participate in the shift schedule rotation as part of our 24 hour staffing model; must be awake at all times when on shift and responsible for the monitoring and supervision of the residence. Full-time shifts are every Monday through Friday, 3:45 p.m. - 12:00 a.m.
- Assist in the overall security and maintenance of the residence.
- Be acquainted with each resident's individual program plan, identify needs, recommend changes in individual program plans and provide assistance that is consistent with the overall plan for each individual.
- Provide case management support for residents including development of and weekly updates to the residents' Plan of Care
- Maintain accurate and up-to-date records and statistics regarding all aspects of service delivery when requested.
- Attend and participate in monthly staff meetings.
