

Are you First Nations, Inuit or Métis?

Would you like to share your experience of living through the COVID-19 Pandemic?

The Ottawa Aboriginal Coalition (OAC) is conducting research titled: Indigenous Community Members' Experiences of COVID-19.

Your story of COVID-19 will be captured through in either a survey and/or an interview with a researcher working with the OAC. The survey will take approximately 30 to 60 minutes.

If you are 18+ years or older and interested in participating by completing a survey, please visit the OAC website at

or go directly to the survey at:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/OAC-Indigenous-Community-Members-Experiences-of-COVID-19>

You can get more information by contacting COVID19Research@ottawaaboriginalcoalition.ca or call (343) 574-9996

The OAC is committed to making sure all participants receive the support they need in this project in all areas of good mental health.

Participants will be compensated.

This research has been funded by a grant from Ottawa Public Health.

This research has been approved through an Ethics Review process by the Royal's Institute of Mental Health Research Ethics Board - REB#2021018
