

OTTAWA HOUSING EDUCATION GROUP PRESENTS

SUPPORTING AND ASSISTING TENANTS: TENANT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES, COMMUNITY SUPPORTS, AND LTB HEARINGS

June 20, 2023, 1:00 – 2:45 p.m.

Via zoom

NO COST TO REGISTER, BUT SPACE IS LIMITED

The Ottawa Housing Education Group is a collaboration of service organizations and legal clinics seeking more equitable housing for tenants.

This session, targeted to social service workers and individuals supporting tenants, will discuss general rights and responsibilities of tenants, common legal issues faced by tenants, how the Landlord and Tenant Board works and resources available in the community to support tenants and their tenancy.

Our impressive line up of speakers are housing law and housing service experts in Ottawa who work daily with tenants on these issues.

Registration required at:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZwode2gqi0sH9LI73Tn-GGumD3vfiTys-gJ>

■ PROGRAM ■

- 1:00 p.m. Welcome, administration, and Land Acknowledgement
Jennifer Mbang, Reach Canada
- 1:05 p.m. General rights and responsibilities of tenants
University of Ottawa Community Legal Clinic
- 1:25 p.m. Common legal issues faced by tenants
Kayla Cardinal Lafrance, Ontario Legal Information Centre
- 1:45 p.m. Question and answer period
- 1:55 p.m. Landlord and Tenant Board procedures and forms
Racquel Scott-Tolson and Sarah Sproule, Community Legal Services of Ottawa
- 2:15 p.m. System navigation and community resources to assist tenants
Anne Smith, Action Logement and Shea Kiely, Housing Help
- 2:35 p.m. Question and answer period
- 2:45 p.m. Adjourn

OTTAWA HOUSING EDUCATION GROUP

Register today: <https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZwode2gqi0sH9LI73Tn-GGumD3vfiTys-gJ>

Funding for this free information session generously provided by:

The Law Foundation of Ontario, Ottawa Community Foundation, and Legal Aid Ontario