

---

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Executive Director Leadership Change at MHI

March 18, 2025 – OTTAWA: Multifaith Housing Initiative (MHI) announces that Executive Director Suzanne Le will be stepping down at the end of the summer as she and her family relocate to the United Kingdom. Since her appointment in January 2013, Suzanne has been the driving force behind MHI's growth and overall impact in the affordable housing sector, leading the organization through numerous significant milestones. Most recently, Suzanne led the organizations successful amalgamation with Gloucester Housing Corporation, which was formally completed on December 1, 2024. Her dedication, vision, and commitment to the advancement of affordable housing have left a lasting mark on both MHI and Ottawa's housing sector.

The Board of Directors at MHI have established a hiring committee and are preparing to launch a comprehensive search for the organization's next Executive Director. The selection process will prioritize strong leadership, a commitment to MHI's mission, and a deep understanding of the challenges and opportunities in Ottawa's housing sector. Further updates will be provided as the process progresses.

MHI expresses its deepest gratitude to Suzanne Le for her years of service and the significant contributions she has made to the organization. Her leadership will be greatly missed, and MHI wishes her and her family success in their next chapter.

About Multifaith Housing Initiative: Multifaith Housing Initiative (MHI) is a charitable organization dedicated to providing safe, affordable, and secure housing to individuals and families in the Ottawa region. Founded on the principles of inclusion, community, and dignity, MHI brings together people from diverse faith groups to address the urgent need for affordable housing.

For more information, visit www.multifaithhousing.ca or follow @MHIottawa on social media.