Lake Country Art Gallery Presents Notions of Gathering- Amber Powell and Cassia Powell

Lake Country, BC — Lake Country Art Gallery is pleased to present Notions of Gathering, a thoughtful exhibition by artists Amber Powell and Cassia Powell. Through drawing, textiles, collage, and installation, this mother-daughter exhibition explores the relationships we form with objects, memories, and one another, inviting visitors to consider gathering as both an act of collecting and a way of creating connection.

What are the things we hold on to that are passed down? How can we cast these associations into spaces of potential?

Lake Country Art Gallery is delighted to present Notions of Gathering, a duo, mother-daughter exhibition by artists Cassia and Amber Powell composed of mixed-media drawings, textiles, installation and collage. Drawing on storytelling, personal and spiritual folklore, this exhibition looks at gathered material as something one can develop a kinship with, and explores what it means to produce and what it means to inherit and gather objects over time.

Within the core of this show, visitors will discover an unpacking of the understandings of traditional nuclear family dynamics, negating the standard for what kinship can mean. Looking at gathering as an act of collecting, but also as a means of coming together.

Amber Powell graduated from the University of Victoria in 1991 with a BFA, focusing on printmaking, and went on to specialize in professional collections management. Cassia Powell also graduated with a BFA from the University of Victoria in 2020, focusing on extended painting and installation. Cassia is currently an MFA Candidate at University of British Columbia.
