

COMMON CONCERN:

Standing Together as Global Citizens

ACIC 2017 SYMPOSIUM

JUNE 15-17
MT. ALLISON UNIVERSITY
SACKVILLE, NB

- KEYNOTE ADDRESSES
- PANEL DISCUSSIONS
- CAPACITY-BUILDING WORKSHOPS AND ACTION PLANNING
- EVENING GALA
Keynote address by Alex Neve, presentation of the Shirley Case Leadership Award, silent auction, and live entertainment.

Common Concern: Standing Together as Global Citizens will enable us to reflect on the seismic shift in recent times of the global political landscape. Together we will explore what role Atlantic Canadians engaged in promoting social justice locally and globally can play in countering these forces that threaten the values of global citizenship - human rights, democratic participation, rule of law, public deliberation based on dialogue and access to accurate information, and environmental sustainability.

For more information & to register, visit www.acicsymposium.org

COST

- Symposium Registration (Member) $175
- Symposium Registration (Non-member) $225
- Symposium Registration (Student / Emerging Leader) $75

(Registration before May 24 for early-bird rates: see website for details)

